CAUSE

On October 13, 2007, Shane D. McCrea was arrested for violating a no-contact order in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. In reviewing the police report, there are some serious concerns regarding his violation conduct. Specifically, he was traveling outside of the Eastern District of Washington, without permission from the U.S. Probation Office. He admitted to consuming alcohol, on or about, October 13, 2007, and he failed to notify the undersigned officer within 72 hours of his arrest, all in direct violation of his terms of supervision.

On October 19, 2007, the undersigned officer interviewed Mr. McCrea, and verbally reprimanded him for his violation conduct. He agreed to the above modification of conditions as a sanction for his conduct. This modification will also allow Mr. McCrea to continue employment and participate in substance abuse counseling.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:
